DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claim 3 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 1-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by O'Leary et al.,

US Pat. App. No. 2002/0180498 A1.

3. As to claims 1, 12, 14 and 18, , O'Leary teaches a server system and method comprising:
a plurality of host processor cards for providing management LAN communications separated from payload LAN communications (§¶0057) ;
a first card coupled to the plurality of host processor cards and coupled to a payload LAN, the plurality of host processor cards configured to provide payload LAN communalizations through the first card (§¶0057); and a second card coupled to the plurality of host processor cards and coupled to a management LAN, the plurality of host processor cards configured to provide management LAN communications with the management LAN through the second card (§§0057).

Art Unit: 2141

4. As to claim 2, O'Leary teaches the first card is a LAN switch (§§0057).

5. As to claims 4-6 and 13, O'Leary teaches the second card being a server management card connected to management processors of the host processors for monitoring operations of the system (§§0057).

6. As to claims 7-10, 15-17 and 19-20, O'Leary teach a backplane for connecting the plurality of cards wherein the host processor cards are coupled to software event managers, configured to communicate status information to the server management card, and configured to transmit hardware events (§§0057).

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed June 15, 2005 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. The applicants argued in substance that "there is no teaching or suggestion in O'Leary that any of the cards in the network element 600 are host processor cards, let alone host processor cards that provide management LAN communications separated from payload LAN communications... O'Leary does not teach or suggest separate management and payload LAN's, or segregating management and payload communications." See Remarks page 7.

Art Unit: 2141

The examiner respectfully disagrees with the applicants' reading of the prior art. O'Leary teaches a plurality of network cards comprising a network management interface card (NMIC) for network management communications, and shelf controller 622/624 and other network interface cards for payload LAN communications. See O'Leary, figure 6. It is clear from the description of figure 6 that network management communications are handled by the NMIC and payload communications are handled by the other cards of the system.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

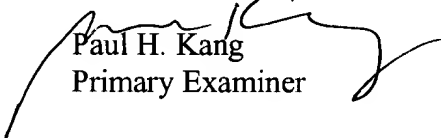

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
